

ON YOUR MARK, GET SET... READ!

Early Literacy Activity Log

- For children birth to four
- Mark off (or have child scribble/color) activities once complete
- When finished, come in to pick up a free book prize (available July 1)
- Modify activities as needed depending on age of child

NAME: _____

Sing counting songs, such as "One, Two, Buckle My Shoe."

Play peek-a-boo by covering pictures of people or animals in books.

Read a story about a famous athlete.

Read a nonfiction (true) book with your child.

Ask your child many questions.

Play with blocks with your child.

Sing songs about your day.

Look at a picture dictionary together.

Make animal noises together.

Visit the library.

"Adopt" a stuffed animal pet. Talk about how to care for it.

Let your child make music with various kitchen items (pots, lids, spoons).

Count with your child as you drive in the car (signs, cars, trucks, etc.).

Read wordless books with your child.

Let your child tear up scrap paper, junk mail, or old magazines. Use the pieces to make mosaic art.

Do fingerplays and action rhymes any time.

Share a book about your favorite sport.

Play a board game or card game with your child.

Put a puzzle together with your child.

Dance with your child. Add scarves for colorful fun.

Talk about what is going on around you.

Share a story about your childhood.

Go on a sensory walk together. Talk about what you see, hear, feel, and smell.

Attend a library program.

Sing "Itsy, Bitsy Spider" with finger actions.

